Introduction:

Oral health is fundamental to general health and well being. A healthy mouth helps an individual to eat, speak and socialize. Prioritizing oral health promotion is the basis for understanding and improving oral health outcomes.

Among the multifactorial duties performed by the dental hygienists, one that is in mainstream focus is health education and promotion. Oral health promotion is needed to be integrated in this domain. Expanding the skillset of dental hygienists for an inclusive approach that addresses oral health is the focus of this programme. This webinar aims at enhancing the understanding of dental hygienists about oral health, prevention of oral diseases, unlearning the myths and knowing the facts.

Objectives:

- 1. To empower dental hygienists on prevention of oral diseases
- 2. To unlearn the myths and knowing the facts

Intended audience:
